Nominate Today! Submit a 2019 Nomination for the ANS Annual Meeting Awards

Deadline for submission: March 1, 2019

For over 50 years, the ANS Honors and Awards Program has honored outstanding achievements and meritorious service in the various fields served by our Society. Through our program, ANS is proud to recognize the exceptional accomplishments of nuclear science and technology professionals.

Awards range from elevation of a member to Fellow grade to named awards honoring highly respected individuals in their field. Information on each of the awards offered, including past award recipients and nomination forms, may be obtained at ans.org.

The following awards are presented at the ANS Annual Meeting each year; abbreviated descriptions of these awards may be found at award categories:

- Walker Lee Cisler Medal
- Distinguished Public Service Award
- Distinguished Service Award
- Fellow of ANS
- Landis Young Member Engineering Achievement Award
- Mishima Award
- Special Award
- Henry DeWolf Smyth Nuclear Statesman Award \(w/NEI\)
- Samuel Untermyer II Medal
- Walter H. Zinn Medal

We encourage all members to review the background and nomination requirements for the awards and consider nominating a qualified colleague. If you have any questions about a specific award, please contact Hussein Khalil, chair of the Honors and Awards Committee, at honors@ans.org.

Selection Process

Completeness of information is essential for consideration. Recipients will be selected by the Honors and Awards Committee comprised of representatives from the Society's divisions. Because of the large number of nominations typically submitted, late nominations are not accepted. Please keep in mind that many of our awards are open to non-ANS members, and nominating colleagues who are not members is a unique way to cultivate new ANS relationships. Self-nominations are not accepted.

Presentation of Awards

The selected recipients, with the exception of the Henry DeWolf Smyth Nuclear Statesman Award, will be honored at the ANS Annual Meeting Opening Plenary on Monday, June 10, 2019. Honorees will be notified of their selection by May 2019. The Henry DeWolf Smyth Award will be presented at the NEI Nuclear Energy Assembly in June 2019.
